Dear Parents and Carers,

Wonderful Mothers

As we celebrate Mother's Day on Sunday it is a great opportunity to stop and think about all the wonderful mothers. Of course mothers do lots of things for their children but the most important gift of a mother is love. A mother's love provides warmth and comfort to their children constantly but especially when they need it most. May all mothers know how special they are! Have a great day on Sunday.

NAPLAN

Next week the Year 3 and Year 5 students will sit NAPLAN. The timetable is as follows;

Tuesday (15/5/18)	Language Conventions and Writing
Wednesday (16/5/18)	Reading
Thursday (17/5/18)	Numeracy

Parents can help your children by;

- Reassure your child/children and encourage them to do their best.
- Treat the day as a normal day of school.
- Stay calm and remember NAPLAN is one assessment used.
- Get your children to have a good night sleep before each assessment.

We wish all the students well during NAPLAN.

Bullying

What to do if you are being bullied.

As we start Term Two, it is a timely reminder to have a chat with your child about bullying. Below are points that can be raised during this chat;

If you are being bullied remember to tell someone.

- Tell your mum or dad, one of your family, a grandparent, teacher, friend or someone else who you think will listen to you. Ask them to help you work out what to do.
- Tell a teacher. It doesn't matter where it happens - in school, out of school or online - teachers want to stop bullying when they know about it.
- If bullying is happening on your phone or the internet, keep messages and posts that hurt you or write down what happened and show an adult.

*The heart of a home is a mother
Whose love is warm and true,
And home has always been "sweet home"
With a wonderful mother like you!*

God bless,

Assistant Principal
Mr Jason Fisher

Jack and the Giant Tea Time

By: Aeva Mendez - Year 1

Jack visited the giant on top of the beanstalk. He climbed the magic beanstalk that he grew. Jack reached the top of the beanstalk and knocked on the giant's door. "Knock, knock," the Giant answered, "Who's there?" in a big loud voice.

"It's me!" Jack answered. "Who is it's me?" the Giant asked. Oh, me, Jack!" Jack replied.

The giant hurriedly opened the door and was surprised to see his friend Jack standing there. Jack and the Giant spent the afternoon catching up while having afternoon tea time together on top of the beanstalk.

The Metropolis News

By: Vinz Danganan - Year 6

Superman, the nickname of the new, life-saving worldwide phenomenon of Metropolis, has exclusively told the Metropolis News that he is "nervous" about his upcoming interview on, The Metropolis News.

He has told a journalist of our company, who we will not name for privacy reasons, however, we will just give her the name Ms L. Ms L reported that Superman currently has no idea what he would say on the interview, and although millions of people watch him bravely stop disastrous events and save countless lives, he is shy and nervous and does not want to take the risk of talking to a person, live on stage, with more than thousands of viewers.

It has also been given a name of his issue, named, "Superman's Dilemma."

We have also reported that Superman has asked Ms L to be the interviewer. Ms L has not told us why. That is the news for today.

Thank you for reading the Metropolis News.

The Troll

By: Theresa Nguyen - Kindergarten

The troll lives in the forest. It is burnt. He is sad, hungry and tries to find food.

He feels sorry because he scares people.
